

Media and Information Literate Citizens: Think Critically, Click Wisely!

23, 27 & 29 April 2021

International Launch of the Media and Information
Literacy Curriculum for Educators and Learners
Belgrade, Republic of Serbia

DRAFT AGENDA

23, APRIL 2021. | TWO HIGH-LEVEL TELEVISION-STYLE DISCUSSIONS

FORMAT: hybrid, speakers are in the television studio while the audience follows the event via ZOOM webinar

TIME: 03:00-03:30 PM (CEST)

PARTICIPANTS

1. Ms Audrey Azoulay, Director - General of UNESCO
2. Mr Xing Qu, Deputy Director - General - DDG, UNESCO
3. Ms Ana Brnabić, Prime Minister of the Republic of Serbia
4. Ms Vera Jourova, Vice President and Commissioner of the European Commission
5. H.E. Dr. Monique Nsanzabaganwa, Deputy Chairperson, African Union Commission

MODERATOR – Zoran Stanojević, Radio Television of Serbia, public service media

FOCUS

This first session will focus on 1) the importance of MIL to the international development agenda, 2) the need for national policies and international cooperation especially in the context of sustainable ways to tackle disinformation and promote information for the public good, and 3) launch of the resource “Media and Information Literate Citizens: Think critically, Click Wisely! (Media and Information Literacy Curriculum for Educators and Learners)”.

TIME: 15:45-16:15 PM (CEST)

PARTICIPANTS

1. Ms Stefania Giannini, Assistant Director-General for Education, UNESCO
2. Ms Gordana Čomić, Minister for Human and Minority Rights and Social Dialogue, Republic of Serbia

MODERATOR – Zoran Stanojević, Radio Television of Serbia, public service media

FOCUS

This second session will focus on 1) role-out and use of the MIL Curriculum in formal, non-formal, and informal learning outside and inside the classroom, and 2) the role of education systems, NGOs, media, libraries, digital communication companies and other information providers.